What Your Colleagues Have to Say About Working at OWC:

Dr. Marcy Kimpton
LACC Grad

I had my own practice but got tired of the day to day job running a business. I joined OWC to spend more time working with patients and now creating the lifestyle I desire.

Dr. Gena Boris
CMCC Grad

Becoming a partner with OWC was the perfect answer to my dilemma. As a mother-to-be, I was able to maintain the practice I spent six years building. I no longer have to worry about the administrative aspects of the business and can concentrate on patient care and enjoying my family. OWC is an organization that cares about their partners and employees and it has been a wonderful experience to be a part of it."

Dr. Audrey Cameron
CMCC Grad

I am currently taking a maternity leave from my practice and being a part of OWC is allowing me to do this knowing that the day to day administration of my office is being taken care of and I can benefit from a continued revenue stream while I'm at home with my new daughter.

One of the other great benefits of being a partner (since 2007) with OWC is the camaraderie of my fellow colleagues, from various health disciplines, whom we meet with regularly. I truly value working with an integrated health care company and ultimately it is our patients who receive the greatest benefit. Creating a fun work environment matters too.

Dr. Jamie Mulholland
University of Western States Grad

I have been an OWC partner for nearly 10 years. I currently practice in Airdrie in a high volume multidisciplinary clinic where a true team approach to people's health and wellness is what we aspire to help our patients achieve.

There were many things that attracted me to join the OWC family.

I loved the opportunities for growth and partnership in something bigger than me or my practice. The systems are in place to help you to succeed, from professional mentoring to head office and administrative support, all within a model that allows and encourages unique individual practice styles. It's great to be able to pursue your passions in practice. But it's amazing when you have a family of all types health professionals who support that pursuit and when you feel privileged to support theirs.

Whatever your goals are, OWC has the model that can help you reach them.

If you have any questions about how we can add value to your practice, reach out and confidentially connect. Thank you for your consideration.
